

Please do not limit the content of satellite radio. Consumers of satellite radio want better content than what is provided by FM and AM stations and they pay for the content to be delivered to them. Competition leads to progress. If the broadcasters can not compete with satellite radio let them go under. Telephones are better than telegraphs, color TV is better than black and white, and XM Radio is better than FM.